AUTOPSIES ARE THE VOICE OF THE DEAD

By Gene Cervantes, Victim Advocate/Consultant

April 8, 2006 is the date Bradley Ryan Hill died. Ryan's death was ruled a suicide by Pulaski County Medical Examiner, Adam F. Craig, M.D. Do medical examiners make mistakes? Absolutely. Do medical examiners admit to their mistakes and do what is necessary to "right" the "wrong"? Seldom.

Medical examiners sometimes forget for whom they work. Do they work for the county that issues his/her check each payday? Do they work for the citizens of a particular county? No! They work for the dead person laying on the table awaiting an autopsy. The medical examiner has a moral obligation to do all that is necessary to conclude truthfully the manner of death. The medical examiner has a responsibility to perform a thorough examination and only, when there is no other evidence to support otherwise, document the manner of death. If medical examiners performed autopsies as if the deceased was a family member, I guarantee, "wrong" would not even be probable.

On July 2012, the Waterbury Police Department made national news. Solved was a forty-five-year-old cold case that was initially ruled an accidental death. You undoubtedly know of this case... Dylan McDermott, movie actor, asked the Chief of Police to re-open the investigation into his mother's death. The investigation revealed that Diane McDermott's death was a murder. Of all the comments heard on national television, one sticks in my craw... "Anyone with basic investigative knowledge would have known this was a murder." The Medical Examiner's finding was "WRONG".

CITIZENS AGAINST HOMICIDE

Who We Are

The majority of the board members of Citizens Against Homicide have had a family member murdered. They are surviving the devastating loss of a loved one and still suffer the continued emotional trauma of coping with our criminal justice system. We have joined together to create a voice for the survivors and friends of murder victims.

CAH Objectives

- Assist families through the complicated criminal justice system.
- Provide trial and courtroom support to victims.
- Accompany victims to parole hearings in their endeavor to keep the convicted murderer in prison.
- Provide information on pending crime legislation.

Protecting Your Own Interests

You can't prepare for the event that makes you a victim. You can only react. You need to know how to deal with the subsequent trial, sentencing and unavoidable parole hearings. CAH helps you take action to protect your own interests.

If you have friends or family who may be in need of our assistance, please pass along the information regarding our organization.

Location for Meetings

We hold monthly meetings on the second Sunday of each month at 302 4th Street, San Rafael, CA. The monthly meeting starts at 10:00 a.m. We encourage anyone interested to attend meetings.

A Few Words from Jan

Citizens Against Homicide is preparing for our Annual Meeting on May 17th. This will be our 21st Annual Meeting and it is amazing that our organization has been doing what we do for the past 22 years. When Jane Alexander and I started CAH, we knew there were needs by victims and we thought we could assist families and friends of murder victims with their quest for justice. CAH became a part of making many things better for the families of victims. We provide families an avenue to talk about their lost loved ones and what they meant to them; we offer an efficient and effective way to help these families keep the murderer of their loved ones in prison to serve their full sentence and we bring attention to judges who fail to treat family members with proper respect during the trial process. These are only a few of our successes; successes we are most proud of. However, somehow over the years, victims have lost much of the ground we previously had. Today, the full focus of our California Governor, Jerry Brown, and other governors, attorney generals and legislators throughout the United States are intent on giving a second chance to convicted murderers. They are searching for ways to empty our prisons with total disregard for public safety. When the crime rate goes up, they change many crimes to a less serious one, thus reducing crime statistics on paper and giving the appearance that crime is going down.

Smoke and mirrors! The ones losing every day are the families of the victims. This is a perfect recipe to increase the number of victims!

It appears organizations like CAH, of which there are less and less, need to go back and remember "why" we started in the first place. We are going to need the determination to, once again, build a relationship with legislators and governors, so that the concerns of the victims will once again have importance. Where we cannot implement change, we will have to be involved in replacing the people in office with people that truly care about public safety and the concerns of the families of victims.

Did You Know?

A “major technical glitch” in Oregon’s crimes victim notification system triggered thousands of false notices to be sent out about the release of inmates, including one on a notorious killer. Officials and news reports on KGW-TV reported that inmate Ward Weaver III was the subject of one of these erroneous alerts.

Corrections spokeswoman Elizabeth Craig later told KTVZ-TV that there were about 8,000 erroneous notifications that inmates were being released.

Brea Day told KGW she was “instantly horrified” when she received word that her cousin’s killer was released.

The Corrections Department will be investigating how the problem happened and advised that crime victims and members of the public check the current status of inmates in State custody by using the Oregon Offender Search option on the internet.

CAH asks:

Does anyone truly understand the absolute HORROR something like this does to the families of the victims. The answer is NO and most don’t care.

Did You Know?

Oklahoma could become the first state to allow the execution of death row inmates by using nitrogen gas under a current bill that was overwhelmingly approved by their House of Representatives. Oklahoma City Republican Rep Mike Christian began studying alternative methods after a botched lethal injection in the spring that led the US Supreme Court to consider the constitutionality of Oklahoma’s current three-drug method.

Christian said numerous studies have been conducted on nitrogen hypoxia which is similar to what pilots at high altitudes can encounter when oxygen supplies diminish. He described the method as humane, painless and easy to administer. The bill now heads to the Senate where a similar measure passed a committee earlier this year.

CAH says:

This sounds like something California should look into and maybe we could empty “death row” the way it should be empty and not by just letting them out.

A Few Words from Jan—cont. from page 2

I am asking everyone to become involved and you can begin by attending our Annual Meeting on May 17th. The meeting starts at 10:00 a.m. and will be held at the beautiful Loch Lomond Yacht Club—95 Loch Lomond Drive, San Rafael, CA. Our guest speaker will be Courtney Elmore—CDCR Victim Services Unit Outreach Trainer. We especially need to encourage our young people to get involved, as they are the ones who will have to carry the torch some day. Those of us who started this work in the 1980s are starting to slow down a bit. We need the energy and strength of the young to carry on the work of CAH. After Courtney’s presentation, we will enjoy a lunch together and continue the sharing of ideas on how we can move forward making needed changes.

Please join me and the rest of the CAH Board—We cannot do this without you.

Two issues are particularly significant. All that was necessary for the Waterbury Police Department to re-open the investigation into Diane McDermott's death was a popular and "rich actor" to ask. The other is the Medical Examiner's determination of manner of death was wrong.

By definition "irony" is a combination of circumstances or a result that is the opposite of what is or might be expected or considered appropriate. Hence, the irony in the death of Ryan Hill is that the investigation is closed, as the manner of death (MOD) has been determined to be suicide. One can only speculate why, in spite of overwhelming information to support foul play, the Pulaski County Medical Examiner determined MOD as suicide.

Ryan Hill joined the United States Army and served his country proudly. He risked his life in combat, serving a tour in the Middle East. I have read documents and reviewed related materials surrounding his death. Suicide was not an option and I believe the Pulaski County Medical Examiner and Lead Detective Jay P. Massiet got this one wrong. I have previously written ("For The Most Part") of my concern that there are law enforcement personnel who routinely take the easiest route to close a case. Ryan's death is a perfect example of a detective taking that easiest route. As a retired peace officer in California, I find this to be shameful. Where has the responsibility and obligation to serve and protect gone?

What I find particularly disgraceful, is that our elected officials have all but turned their backs on a decorated United States Army Veteran. Ryan did not deserve to die. His family deserves the truth. Based on information contained in the many reports and related documents reviewed, there is every indication that Ryan's death was the result of foul play.

"Preconceive" by definition... is to form a conception or opinion of beforehand. Documents available support my belief that there was a preconception by law enforcement personnel that Ryan's death was a suicide and dismissed any other considerations for MOD.

The documents and related materials cited above were made available for review for my wife, Shellie Cervantes and I (Victim Advocates/Consultants for CAH). This review was a prelude to a taped round-table discussion of Ryan's death. Participants in the discussion included Pam Coronado, Intuitive Investigator—Project Search for Hope, Rick Dry, Associate—Project Search for Hope, Shellie and I. The taping of this session was aired on national television late September 2012.

Taking the easiest route to close a case is unacceptable and a betrayal to the oath of all peace officers to "serve and protect". When the significance and importance of physical evidence is dismissed, when contradictory and inconsistent witness statements are not challenged, when forensic evidence is overlooked (broken nose, red fluid in stomach/lungs by the Medical Examiner), when there is an absence of stress test results of electric cord used in Ryan's hanging death, as well as a significant square shaped bruise (resembling the marking of a stun gun(?)), and when there is no challenge or subpoena for the cell phone records of the last two people to see Ryan alive (both refused to release records voluntarily), when the taped message left by Ryan, pleading for help (gurgling sound) on a female friend's cell phone is dismissed, when evidence exists to indicate the body of a man hanging defies suicide as "MOD" is not pursued, etc., the question... "WHY?"... must be asked.

Again, I ask, was the easiest route taken to close a case? Or was this simply lack of training, investigative oversight, laziness, complicity in a cover-up or just plain stupidity? Was arrogance or stubbornness behind the Pulaski County Medical Examiner's refusal to consider the possibility of foul play or to even consider a second review or opinion.

The lead detective interviewed one of the last witnesses to have seen Ryan alive. The witness gave inconsistent, contradictory and unexplained statements to the lead detective. In spite of this, the lead detective elected to close the case based in part on the statement of this witness. Was this that easy route to close a case?

The family of Ryan Hill secured the services of a Private Investigator and an Analytical and Forensic Associate to review photographs, reports, statements, notes and audio tape concerning his death.

The Analytical and Forensic Associate without a doubt questions the Manner of Death (MOD) of Bradley Ryan Hill. Photographs of the scene are most unusual. The body's positioning in relationship to the fence and tree, knots used to tie the electrical cord to the tree branch and Ryan's neck are interesting and suggest an alternate scenario. Deputy Coroner Garland Camper and County Investigator Julie Voejala assessed the scene and characterized the death as suspicious. Ms. Voejala stated that based on her observations, she worked the scene as a homicide.

There were injuries to Ryan's body that are not explained by the act of hanging or by witness statements concerning events/activities prior to his death. Also, there is the disturbing message left by Ryan "pleading" for help and describing large amounts of blood; not able to stop bleeding. Yet Ryan's clothing showed very little blood evidence.

Ryan lacked the characteristics of a man set on suicide. He was not depressed, he had a recent hair cut, clean shaven and wore clean clothes. He was excited about purchasing a new truck in the next week. He did not have sufficient quantities of drug or alcohol in his system to cause severe depression or suicidal tendencies. Finally, Ryan did not leave a suicide note or letter.

There are key elements of suicide missing in this case. There are unusual, interesting, confusing and suspicious elements which suggest an alternate Manner of Death (MOD). The conclusion is that there is inconclusive evidence to support a specific MOD.

Therefore, until such time as more definitive information is obtained, the MOD should be classified as "Undetermined".

The Private Investigator interviewed all witnesses who were at the home of Josh Kimmons, with the exception of the last two people known to have seen Ryan alive. One witness declined to be interviewed on tape and the other was never approached about giving a taped interview.

Noted in the Private Investigator's report is that both Deputy Coroners Garland Cooper and Julie Voejala, both had reservations about the case being a suicide. Reservations were based on the position of Ryan's body on the fence, as it was suspended from the tree. He further mentions a ladder at the scene/back of pick-up truck with dirt and white padding on the feet of the ladder. Deputy Voejala thought she was photographing the scene of a homicide. She also noted Ryan's blue jeans were loose at the waist and were hanging rather low, as if the body had been dragged across the ground, forcing the pants to sag at the waist and leaving the boxer shorts exposed.

With regard to the cell phone records, the District Attorney's Office (Prosecutor) has refused to subpoena phone records requested by the investigator and the family of Ryan Hill. Phone records were obtained from several people involved with the case. Enough of the records studied determine that several of the persons with Ryan on the evening before his death were less than truthful in statements concerning their activities that night.

What is wrong with the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office and Sheriff Doc Holladay? Why has there been a rush to judgment that Ryan's death was a suicide? Why have Arkansas State Representatives Bobby Pierce, Andy Mayberry and Arkansas State Senators Joyce Elliott, Steve Farris and Mark Pryor not involved themselves into the suspicious death of a decorated ex-soldier. The people of Pulaski County should be outraged, not only with Ryan's death, but the fact that there is/are murderers walking their streets and law enforcement appear to be unconcerned

I have only scratched the surface of an inept investigation, questionable decisions by Pulaski County Sheriff Doc Holladay and Pulaski County Medical Examiner's determination of MOD. There is little doubt that Bradley Ryan Hill met his death at the hands of others. An investigation into his death is absolutely warranted.

Now, I ask... if the Waterbury Police Department can re-open and then solve a 45-year-old cold case, why can't the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office do likewise? It is time to "right" this devastating "wrong"! Do the right thing—re-open the investigation into the death of Ryan Hill.

Letters Requesting Governor

Mark Lugo

(DATE)

The Honorable Jerry Brown
Governor of California
State Capitol
Sacramento, CA 95814

RE: Mark Lugo—CDC# E-I4658

Dear Governor Brown,

On March 5, 2015, a parole date was granted for the above-referenced inmate. I would like to state for the record that I strongly oppose a release to parole. I am respectfully requesting that you reverse the Board of Parole Hearing's decision granting parole to convicted murderer Mark Lugo for the following reasons:

I believe he continues to pose a dire threat to society. His violent history clearly demonstrates a high propensity for violence/murder. This is evidenced by his past acts of animal cruelty/killing, culminating with a brutal and senseless murder of an innocent mother of two young children. Enid (Eydie) Ruth Lopez ended her short-term relationship with Lugo, because she did not want her children exposed to alcohol and drug abuse. After weeks of harassing Eydie, Lugo's sense of entitlement peaked. He then planned and carried out a premeditated execution of Miss Lopez. This murder involved entering the victim's vehicle and the use of a makeshift garrote (hanger), which he used to strangle Eydie. This savage attack did not convince him of her death, so he proceeded to use his pocket knife to slit her throat. Lugo fled his scene of crime; Eydie's lifeless, bleeding body still seated behind the wheel of her car with the garrote around her neck. What kind of person could commit such a heinous act upon another human being? A psychopath.

Again, I respectfully request you review this matter and come to the same conclusion that Enid Ruth Lopez's family and friends have held since her brutal and senseless murder. Anymore today, the only people serving life sentences are those who have lost loved ones to murder.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Connor Brown to Deny Parole

I believe he continues to pose a dire threat to society. This murderer planned, recruited help and carried out the horrific and brutal stabbing murder of Clois "Bob" O'Connor, age 56, as revenge for being discharged from employment. He has never expressed remorse for his actions. Mr. O'Connor begged for his life as Gonzalez and four co-offenders held him down, savagely stabbing him over 60 times. What kind of person could commit such a heinous act upon another human being? A psychopath.

Again, I respectfully request you review this matter and come to the same conclusion that Bob O'Connor's family and friends have held since his brutal and senseless murder. Anymore today, the only people serving life sentences are those who have lost loved ones to murder.

Thank you for your consideration.

Victims now have a voice, a voice not heard before Marsy's Law. Marcella Leach led the battle for victim rights and touched countless lives along the way. Citizens Against Homicide will never forget her and her history-making accomplishments. We all have lost a courageous crusader, who will be forever missed. We are honored to share the following article written by her friend, John Gillis.

Marcella Leach, Mother of Marsy and “Marsy’s Law” Has Died

By John W. Gillis

Marcella Leach, a giant in the victims’ rights movement, died March 15 at Irvine Medical Center in Orange County, California. She was 85.

Marcella began her work with crime victims shortly after the murder of her daughter Marsalee “Marsy” Nicholas in 1983. Marsy was a student at Santa Barbara College when she was murdered by her boyfriend after she broke off their relationship. Marsy’s murderer was as “Marsy’s Law”. The Bill provides specific rights for all victims of crime. Nicholas III, co-founder of computer electronics giant, Broadcom Corp., financed the California ballot measure. released back into the community, on bail, and the family was not notified. Marcella encountered Marsy’s killer in a neighborhood grocery store shortly after his release.

Several months after Marsy’s murder, Marcella contacted me at the Los Angeles Police Department and invited me to attend a meeting to discuss crime victims and the criminal justice system. Out of those meetings grew Justice for Homicide Victims, JHV, spearheaded by Marcella. The organization became a fierce advocate for victims’ rights and played a major role in changing laws for victims at the local, state and national level.

In 2008, Marcella Leach and her son, Henry T. Nicholas III, changed the landscape for victims in California with a Victims’ Bill of Rights, also known Marcella was a close friend and supporter. When I was appointed to the California Board of Prison Terms and later as Director of the Office for Victims of Crime in Washington, D.C., she always gave her support. In special situations, including her national crime victim award in D.C., she would jokingly admonish “don’t forget where you came from”, meaning JHV and Kentucky. Patsy and I will miss her greatly, especially the Las Vegas ventures.

Marcella was born in Louisville, Kentucky and graduated from the University of Louisville. She received a Masters’ Degree from U.C.L.A.

RE: William Ray Hall, Jr.—CDC#
K-46685

Parole Hearing Date—June 9, 2015

Dear Chairman
and Parole Board Members:

Please DO NOT grant a parole date to convicted murderer, William Ray Hall, Jr. On March 23, 1996, Hall planned, then carried out the murder of Toni Marie Parcell, who had just ended their short-term relationship. He stalked her, then brutally assaulted and strangled her to the point of unconsciousness. But, this first act of violence wasn't enough. He quickly loaded her lifeless body into her own vehicle, drove to the mountains in Redland (Southern California), where he threw her body over a cliff and down a ravine. He later returned to this location with a shotgun, where he proceeded to shoot Toni in the face at close range; leaving her face and head disfigured beyond recognition. Her body was discovered two weeks later. Prior to William Hall's arrested, he had been driving Toni's truck and bragging to his friends about the murder he committed.

On June 9, 2015, Toni Parcell's family will, once again, have to relive the horrendous events that led to her brutal murder. Their lives have never been the same, and now they are having to face a Parole Hearing. Because of his complete disregard for human life and lack of conscience and remorse, justice demands that this convicted murderer be denied parole. William Ray Hall, Jr. made a personal choice to execute an innocent mother of two and must continue to accept the consequences of his actions. He must remain in prison, so that he can never again harm another innocent human being.

Toni Marie Parcell does not get a second chance to live; she is gone forever. Therefore, William Ray Hall, Jr. does not deserve a second chance or the privilege of freedom.

Please deny parole to convicted murderer William Ray Hall, Jr., for the maximum time allowed by California law.

Thank you for your consideration.

New York State Board of Parole

Albany, New York 12206

RE: Norman Simmons—
DIN# 92b2087

Parole Hearing Date: June 2015

Dear Chairman
and Parole Board Members:

Please DO NOT grant a parole date to convicted murderer Norman Simmons. On November 5, 1991, Simmons committed pre-meditated murder after breaking into the home of Thomas James Davey. He brutally and repeatedly stabbed Mr. Davey in the chest, ultimately killing him.

In 1991, Mr. Davey was living alone in an apartment complex in the city of Rochester, New York. He was 50 years old and suffering from declining health. He befriended the apartment complex maintenance man, Norman Simmons. In late October of 1991, Simmons chose to take advantage of the ailing Mr. Davey. He broke into Mr. Davey's apartment, robbed him of his Social Security check and then attempted to kill Mr. Davey by forcing a pillow over his face. Feeling confident the victim was dead, he left the residence. From that day on, Mr. Davey lived in fear for his life.

Days later, he confided the incident to a friend, who later approached Simmons with a warning to stay away from Mr. Davey. Then, on November 5, 1991, Norman Simmons entered Mr. Davey's locked apartment with keys he had stolen and confronted, then attacked the victim as he sat at the kitchen table. He brutally, and without remorse, stabbed Mr. Davey 12 times; one wound penetrating his heart. Norman Simmons lingered in the victim's apartment for over an hour, as he attempted to cover up his crime. The victim's possessions and the murder weapon were later discovered in Norman Simmons' apartment.

Norman Simmons must be held accountable for his personal choice to execute Thomas Davey and must accept the consequences. Because of his complete disregard for human life and the heinous nature and brutality of this crime, justice demands that this convicted murderer be denied parole. He must remain behind bars, where he can never again harm another innocent human being.

Thomas James Davey does not get a second chance to live; he is gone forever. Therefore, Norman Simmons does not deserve a second chance or the privilege of freedom.

Please help Mr. Davey's family by keeping his murderer behind bars and deny parole to convicted murderer Norman Simmons for the maximum time allowed by State of New York law.

Thank you for your consideration.
